What people say about our tours

Windhorse Tour

★★★★★ Aug 31, 2013 by Jane Bourneley
An amazing experience! I can't say highly enough of WHT. They have booked a private tour of Tibet and Lhasa for me and I can't wait to head off on my trip. They were very prompt, professional and friendly and I would definitely recommend, if you're looking for an agent to help you book your next adventure.

Day 01: Arrive at Beijing
Be greeted by a local guide and driver at the airport or train station in Beijing, then head to your hotel. Have the rest of the day free to explore the exciting city. Your local guide will be ready to offer suggestions on where to go or what to do your first night in Beijing.

Day 02: Beijing city tour
Forbidden City → Tiananmen Square → Summer Palace → Kong Fu Show

After breakfast, head to Tiananmen Square at the center of Beijing city. The square, regarded as the largest in the world, is surrounded by the National Museum of China, the Chinese People's Revolution Museum, and the Great Hall of the People. You will have a glimpse of several highlights including the Monument to People's Heroes located at the center of Tiananmen Square.

Afterwards, take a visit to the Forbidden City, an ancient palace complex where 24 emperors had lived and worked during both the Ming and Qing Dynasties. Your local guide will tell you the detailed history of the city and introduce the architecture of the building. The complex contains over 9,000 buildings and rooms, all built from wood and presented ancient wooden structures and importance in Chinese history.

Every lunch then in the afternoon, head to the Summer Palace is a must-visit Beijing. The Summer Palace is a royal garden surrounding Kunming Lake and Longevity Hill more traditionally known as Yanchao Shan. It was originally built in 1750 and was used as a summer residence by the emperors during Qing dynasty as a summer time retreat. You will easily see many spectacular gardens, pavilions, and temples in the garden. In the evening, you may choose to enjoy the Kongfu Show. (Optional)
